From the SD's Study

Dear Members and Friends of the Greater Dayton Emmaus Community:

The Bible says: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."
 My father was a saint - I do not mean that he was perfect - that is a common definition of "saint." A "saint" is someone who is redeemed - purchased with the Blood of Jesus. Set apart for the Lord and for ministry. Using that definition, my father was a saint. As are many of us.
 In these days of loss and pain, I have also been filled with a profound sense of gratitude. Gratitude for the spiritual heritage and legacy that has been passed on to the next generation of our family. As you have read in Mary Pat's article (which is a wonderful article!), my father had a love for God's Word. He loved it, embraced it, tried to live by it.
 We who have been touched by God's Grace through our Emmaus Walk (as well as many other "tools" that have shown us God's grace), need to know that God loves His Word. ("Forever, O Lord, Your Word is written in heaven"). ("Heaven and earth will pass away, but My Word will never pass away."). We who know God's grace are commanded to grow in grace and in the knowledge of God's Word.
 My father passed on to me many things - but one of the main things is a love for the Word of God. For that I will be eternally grateful.

Thanks be to God!
 Yours in Christ,
 Ricci Arthur
